-BUZZWORTHY-

National Ice Cream Month

Americans consume about 23 gallons of ice cream each year, on average. As the summer reaches peak temperatures in July, Americans celebrate National Ice Cream Month as a way to cool off and enjoy the nation's favorite frozen treat with friends and family. Most ice cream companies are family owned and have been in operation for more than 50 years!

Have an ice cream day to beat the summer heat! You could make homemade ice cream and even combine it with fruits or nuts for a special treat.

Great books to read:

- Gorilla Loves Vanilla by Chae Strathie
- Isaac's Ice Cream Tree by Angela Henderson
- Ice Cream Summer by Peter Sis
- Splat the Cat: I Scream for Ice Cream
- Stick Dog Dreams of Ice Cream by Tom Watson
- Curious George & the Ice Cream Surprise
- Curious About Ice Cream by Bonnie Bader
